McNeil's Announces The Retirement and Closing of McNeil Jewelers

Dear Valued Customers and Friends, it is with a mix of gratitude and nostalgia that we announce the retirement and closing of McNeil Jewelers after 79 wonderful years in business. This decision was not made lightly, but after nearly eight decades of serving the Norwich community, it is time for us to embark on a new chapter.

Since our founding in 1946, McNeil Jewelers has been more than just a business, it has been a place where generations have celebrated love, milestones, and cherished memories. We have been honored to be a part of your engagements, anniversaries, birthdays, and countless other special occasions. Your loyalty and support have meant everything to us, and we are incredibly grateful for the friendships and trust we have built over the years.

As we prepare for our final days, we invite you to visit us and take part in our Retirement Sale, where you will find special discounts as a token of our appreciation. More importantly, we hope you stop by to share a memory and allow us to personally thank you for being such an important part of our journey.

McNeil Jewelers may be closing its doors, but the memories and relationships we have created will last a lifetime. Thank you for allowing us to be a part of your lives for the past 79 years.

With heartfelt appreciation, Patrick and Jim McNeil.

Best of Chenango County WINTER SPORTS

Many of our Chenango County high school sports teams and athletes have once again performed to an exceptional level during the 2024-2025 season.

A season ago The Evening Sun published a five-section special insert that promoted our star athletes and teams who either reached a major milestone, won a championship or broke a school record within that respective sport.

In April, we will once again profile the best athletes and teams our County has to offer with our 2024-2025 Best of Chenango County Winter Sports!

The special section will include large color photos of our star athletes and teams as well as detailed summaries explaining extraordinary achievements along with quotes from our athletes and coaches.

This type of sports coverage can only be found at The Evening Sun and we take great pride in presenting this once-a-year publication that summarizes the best our winter sports has to offer.

Deadline: Tues., April 8

TAX GUIDE

THE RIGHT TO PAY NO MORE THAN THE CORRECT AMOUNT OF TAX

The Taxpayer Bill of Rights (TBOR) is a cornerstone document that highlights the 10 fundamental rights taxpayers have when dealing with the Internal Revenue Service. The IRS wants every taxpayer to be aware of these rights in the event they need to work with the IRS on a personal tax matter. The IRS continues to publicly highlight these rights to taxpayers. The IRS also regularly reminds its employees about these rights. The IRS expects employees to understand and apply taxpayer rights throughout every encounter with taxpayers.

IRS Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, includes a full list of taxpayers' rights. It includes The Right to Pay No More Than the Correct Amount of Tax.

Taxpayers have the right to pay only the amount of tax legally due, including interest and penalties, and to have the IRS apply all tax payments properly.

What you can expect:

- If you believe you have overpaid your taxes, you can file for a refund; however, there are specific time frames in which you must file your claim. For more information, see Publication 556, Examination of Returns, Appeal Rights, and Claims for Refund.
- If you receive an IRS notice or bill and believe there is an error on it, write to the IRS office that sent it to you within the time frame given. You should provide photocopies of any records that may help correct the error. Also, you may call the number listed on your notice or bill for help. If you are correct, the IRS will make the necessary adjustment to your account and send you a corrected notice.
- If you discover an error after you file your return, you may need to amend your return. You should file an amended return if there is an error or change in your filing status, income, deductions or credits. However, the IRS may automatically correct math errors on a return, and may accept returns with certain forms or schedules left out. In these cases, you do not need to amend your return. If you disagree with an adjustment the IRS made, you must request within 60 days that the IRS reverse the change. This timeline preserves your right to challenge the proposed adjustment in court, if needed, before paying it.
- You may request that any amount owed be removed if it exceeds the correct amount due under the law, if the IRS has assessed it after the period allowed by law, or if the assessment was done in error or violation of the law.
- You may request that the IRS remove any interest from your account if the IRS caused unreasonable errors or delays. For example, if the IRS delays issuing a statutory notice of deficiency because the assigned IRS employee was away for several months attending training, and interest accrues during this time, the IRS may abate the interest related to the delay.
- You can submit an offer in compromise, asking the IRS to accept less than the full amount of your tax debt, if you believe you don't owe all or part of the debt. Use Form 656-L, Offer in Compromise PDF.

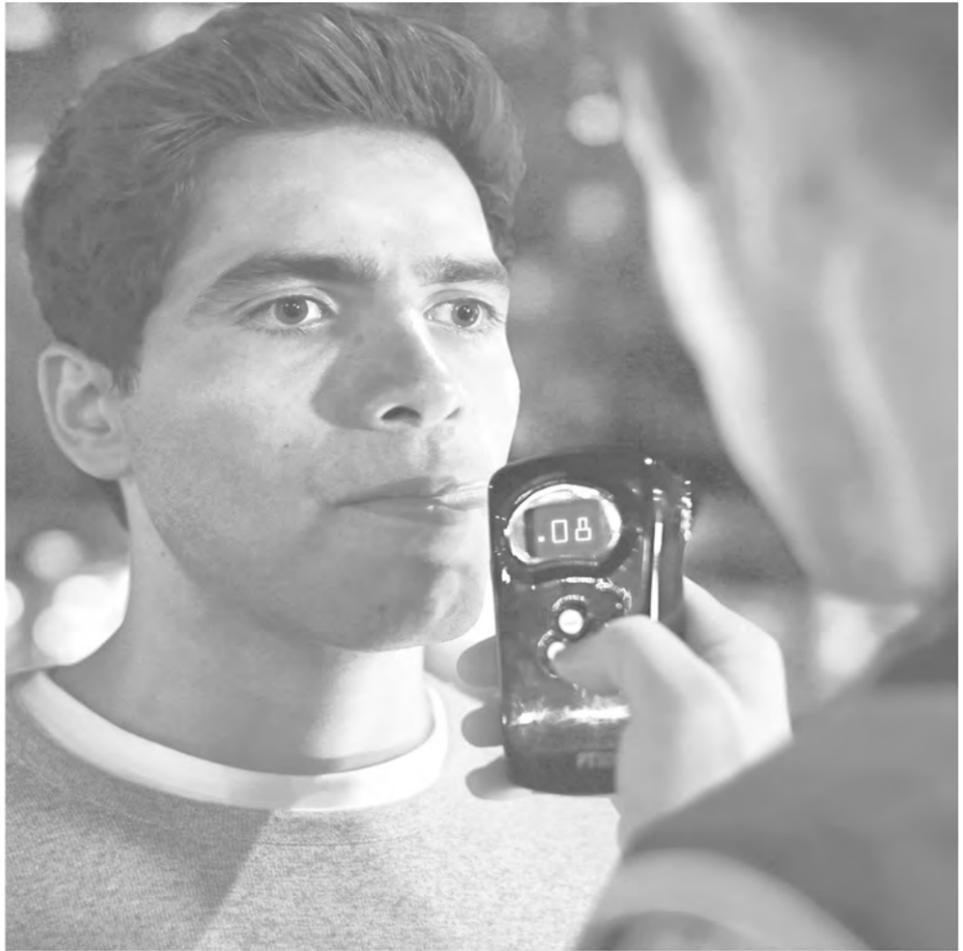

If you enter a payment plan, known as an installment agreement, the IRS must send you an annual statement. The statement provides balances and a record of payments.

To find out more about the TBOR and what it means to you visit the Taxpayer Advocate Service's website.

By making this important publication available in multiple languages, the IRS hopes to increase the number of Americans who know and understand their rights under the tax law. The IRS has more tax information in other languages too. See the "Languages" menu at the top of any IRS.gov page.

The IRS also is committed to protecting taxpayers' civil rights. The IRS will not tolerate discrimination based on age, color, disability, race, reprisal, national origin, English proficiency, religion, sex, sexual orientation or status as a parent. This includes any contact with IRS employees and the staff or volunteers at community sites.

If a taxpayer faces discrimination, they can send a written complaint PDF to the IRS Civil Rights Division.

YOU JUST BLEW $10,000.

Buzzed. Busted. Broke.

Get caught, and you could be paying around $10,000 in fines, legal fees and increased insurance rates.

Houseplant Tip

It's important to watch houseplants closely. According to gardenguides.com, an online gardening resource, you should inspect plants regularly for yellowing or discolored leaves. This condition is usually caused by overwatering, but can also be the result of insects. Deformed plants and sticky deposits on leaves and stems can be caused by insects as well.

GOOD TIMES GUIDE

Sidney Historical Association Presents

Scintilla - 100th Anniversary Program

By Dave Plummer

Amphenol-Aerospace, formerly Scintilla, has been through many iterations, from Scintilla to Bendix to Allied to Amphenol.

Dave will present this program in three essential parts or points:

- The Beginning from Switzerland
- The War Years – effect on Sidney
- The Connector Evolution includes remarks about the Amphenol acquisition and Space Station Connectors.

Saturday, March 22nd – 1PM to 3PM
Community Cultural Center
1 Bridge Street, Sidney, NY

Sidney's business growth came with the beginning of a Swiss company, Brown-Boveri, which bought the Hatfield building to produce Scintilla magnetos used in aircraft engines. The new Scintilla Magneto Co. in America broke away from Brown-Boveri because our military insisted that all magneto components must be manufactured in this country. Bendix Aviation Corporation purchased Scintilla in 1929. By World War II, the company employed 8,600 people and had a world-class reputation for manufacturing airplane parts. By 1960, the Town of Sidney's population had surged to 7,110. The company became Amphenol Aerospace Corporation by 2003 and is the largest employer in Delaware County.

LOOKING FOR AN AFFORDABLE USED CAR?

SICK OF BUYING rusty junk off of an individual or online and then spending more than you paid for it trying to get it functional or to pass inspection? At Central Auto Sales I take pride in buying quality cars that are still in excellent condition that can supply you with many miles of service in the future. I typically buy my cars from states south of NY to avoid the rust associated with local cars.
